Disposal of District Property

District property should normally be disposed of with a public bid or auction. There may be times however, when due to obsolescence and condition of such property, the property has no value. Whenever district property is disposed of – either via public bid or disposed of as having no value - this form is to be used.

Dear Patricia Sotero:

Thank you for taking the time to submit a list of textbooks that you are interested in selling to Follett Educational Services, Inc. (FES).

Unfortunately, we are not currently purchasing the titles that you submitted for review. However, our purchasing needs change on a regular basis. We will contact you if the purchasing status of the titles that you submitted changes based on our inventory levels and customer demand.

Thank you again for the opportunity to review your list of surplus textbooks. We would like to show our appreciation for your efforts by offering you 5% off your next Follett Educational Services textbook order (see below). Please contact me if you come across any new titles that you would like me to review or have any questions about the FES Book Buy-Back Program.

Best Regards,

Mike Poma
