

AGREEMENT between

The HORSEHEADS CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

and

The WESTERN NEW YORK EDUCATIONAL SERVICE COUNCIL

The Horseheads Central School District, through the Superintendent of Schools, Ralph Marino, Jr., authorizes the Western New York Educational Service Council to provide training and facilitate discussion that encompasses team building, needs assessment, and identification of district priorities that will include district goals and objectives for the next three to five years. This work will result in the following outcomes:

1. On-going development of administrative council consensus-driven goals and objectives and action strategies for the next 3-5 school years
2. Team building activities and administrative professional development that lead to a stronger and more effective Administrative Council

The cost of the project will be $150.00 per hour, including travel expenses, and will be billed to the District by the Council at various times during the process.

The project will be conducted by Dr. Susan Gray, a consultant working with the Western New York Educational Service Council, which is located in the Graduate School of Education, University at Buffalo. This agreement is in effect from July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014.
