

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Horseheads Central School District Board of Education names Day Automation as their sole source vendor for service of the District wide Door Access and Video Surveillance System. Day Automation is the factory authorized representative for both Schneider Electric Andover Continuum Door Access Control system and Schneider Electric Pelco video surveillance systems. Day Automation installed the District's initial equipment and the District would like to continue to use Day Automation for continuity and maintenance of both the Door Access and Video Surveillance Systems.