MOTION CARRIED

Presentation of the Proposed 2010-2011 Budget

Superintendent Ralph Marino gave an overview of the 2010-2011 School Budget Development Update. He reviewed the process of the 2010-2011 Budget Planning and Development which began in October 2009 with the development of a five-year budget. Ralph reviewed the State-Wide Picture which includes Governor Paterson's budget proposal of a $1.4 billion cut in state aid to districts. Ralph reviewed the following situations that the District is dealing with as the school year draws to a close: a deficit of $1,000,000 in the estimated Health Insurance Program, an estimated interest deficit as of June 30th of $250,000, $3,306,420 in State aid that is currently being withheld, $5,447,737 State aid amount that is due to the District by June 30th and a proposed freeze in 2009-2010 state aid for special education based upon the Governor's January estimates which is $176,381. Ralph reviewed the proposed 2010-2011 Budget, the 2010-2011 deficit and where it comes from, an overview of the Deficit Reduction Plan, Cost Savings of $1,262,870, Program/Office Modifications, Total Reductions/Savings, the Five-Year Budget Forecast, Ten-Year Staffing and Enrollment and the Budget and Tax History.
